Redwell House

An exceptional opportunity to create an architect-designed country home occupying a generous plot of over 0.35 acres in a delightful rural setting, enjoying open views across the surrounding countryside.

Redwell House benefits from full planning permission for the comprehensive remodelling and substantial extension of the existing dwelling, creating what will effectively become a striking new residence, thoughtfully designed to combine contemporary architecture with its traditional rural surroundings.

The approved scheme has been designed by GA Associates of Preston and provides for an impressive family home centred around expansive open-plan living accommodation with dramatic glazed elevations framing the surrounding countryside. The accommodation includes four double bedrooms, all with en-suite facilities, together with a home office/gym, detached double garage, generous parking and a range of sustainable features including solar panels.

Location

Located on the B6254 between Kirkby Lonsdale, Over Kellet and Halton, Redwell House enjoys an enviable position within the rolling countryside of the Lune Valley. Situated adjacent to the highly regarded Redwell Country Inn, the property combines a peaceful rural setting with excellent accessibility. Junction 34 of the M6 is less than 10 minutes away by car, providing convenient connections, while the popular market towns of Kirkby Lonsdale and Lancaster are both within easy reach.

The spectacular landscapes of the Lake District,

Yorkshire Dales and Morecambe Bay are all readily accessible, offering an abundance of opportunities for walking, cycling and days out in some of the region's most stunning surroundings. A choice of well-regarded primary schools can be found nearby in Over Kellet, Hornby and Arkholme, with secondary education options including Queen Elizabeth School in Kirkby Lonsdale, Lancaster Royal Grammar School, Lancaster Girls' Grammar School and Carnforth High School.
