An impressive natural 3-storey Victorian terraced house with very good living/entertaining space on the ground floor and a private, secluded garden. The elegant, high-ceilinged double reception has a bay window to the front, a marble feature fireplace with shelving and dwarf cupboards with a 2nd fireplace to the rear with tall cupboards and shelving. Double French doors open into the full-width kitchen/breakfast room with Shaker-style units, a breakfast bar, integrated appliances and a granite worktop. There are French doors which open onto the garden which is initially paved then 'London'-lawned with borders planted with mature shrubs and bushes. There are 5/6 bedrooms each with air conditioning, 2 bathrooms, 2 shower rooms with the utilities in one of the shower rooms, a guest cloakroom and a study/bedroom 6 on the upper floors. The top floor hosts a particularly spacious bedroom with a charming Juliet balcony overlooking the garden, allowing for an abundance of natural light and a delightful sense of openness. This substantial and extra wide house of approximately 2,400 sq ft offers truly flexible accommodation and occupies an excellent position on this pretty tree-lined residential road. It is ideally situated for the excellent transport hubs of Shepherds Bush and Hammersmith. It is also within walking distance of the new amazing Olympia London development with all its' cultural and fine dining options. Some of the best UK state and private primary and secondary schools are also close by.
