A cleverly configured 4 double bedroom flat fronted Victorian end of terrace cottage with good living/entertaining space and a private patio garden.

The entrance is to the side of the property and double doors lead into the reception which has 2 sash windows to the front and exposed brick chimney breast with a wood burner and a parquet wood floor. The rear of the reception is currently configured as a media/TV area and opens into the full-width contemporary kitchen/breakfast room which has a glassed side return, polished concrete floor, excellent built in oak kitchen cupboards, a central island and exposed brick wall running the length of the kitchen. There are full width glass bi-fold doors which open onto the walled patio garden which also has its own entrance to the side. A guest cloakroom is off the entrance hallway and there is under floor heating throughout the property. There are 4 double bedrooms, a bathroom and shower room on the upper floors. This well-configured, contemporary property of approximately 1400 sq ft is nestled in the heart of Brook Green and within walking distance of the restaurants and amenities of Blythe Road as well as the local gastro pubs. Transport links at both Hammersmith Broadway and Westfield London are also moments away.
