DIRECTIONS

Frontline cottage located in a fantastic coastal setting in the heart of the fishing village of Newlyn. This character cottage is only yards from Newlyn seafront and is only a two minute level walk to the shops. Now in need of refurbishment with huge potential to bring this cottage up to modern day standards. To the rear of the property is a large level garden which is a rare find in this location, the garden has endless possibilities and benefits from a workshop. Currently designed to maximise the stunning sea views over the bay the living room is on the first floor, whilst there is a bedroom, spacious kitchen/diner and a shower room on the ground floor. To the front of the property is a parking space. A viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the location, potential and the garden. Available chain free.
