DIRECTIONS

As you enter the village of Mousehole passing The Coastguard Hotel and the Rover Garage, Dumbarton Terrace is a traffic free terrace on the right hand side of the road.

Charming Coastal Renovation Opportunity - Nestled in the heart of the highly desirable fishing village of Mousehole, this two-bedroom terraced cottage presents a wonderful opportunity for those looking to create a bespoke coastal retreat. While the property is in need of some modernization and care, its traditional character and prime location make it a standout project.

The Property - Ground Floor: A lounge featuring a wood-burning stove set against an exposed granite wall, complemented by a separate kitchen area. First Floor: Two bedrooms and a family bathroom. The View: The front bedroom enjoys charming rooftop views extending toward the sea.

Outside: A front garden that, once cleared, offers a peaceful outdoor escape. It currently houses a summerhouse tucked into the corner, perfect for a studio or garden retreat.

Essential Information

Tenure: Freehold - Services: Mains electricity, water, and drainage - Heating: Wood-burning stove and electric heating - Council Tax: Band B - Connectivity: Ofcom indicates good mobile coverage across most networks and the availability of ultrafast broadband (not currently connected).

Investment Potential

This cottage is a "blank canvas" in one of Cornwall's most sought-after locations. Whether you are looking for a full-time residence or a holiday investment, this property offers the chance to add significant value through refurbishment.
