Property Description

A tarmac driveway, bordered by a neatly kept front lawn, leads you to the UPVC front door, where an EV charging point is thoughtfully installed—ideal for modern living. Step inside to discover an L-shaped hallway with useful additional storage, setting the tone for the practical yet welcoming interior.

The lounge is impressively bright and spacious, with a large south-facing double-glazed window allowing sunlight to pour in throughout the day. There is ample room for a full suite of furniture, while an electric fire provides a cosy focal point for relaxing evenings.

The kitchen continues the home's light-filled feel, featuring wood-effect worktops, tiled walls, and south-facing windows. Well laid out, it offers space for a fridge freezer, washing appliances and a cooker, with one of the cupboards neatly housing the combi boiler.

The bathroom is neatly appointed, complete with a bath and overhead electric shower, wash basin and WC, all complemented by laminate flooring and tiled walls for a clean, modern finish.

The main bedroom is a generous and airy space, comfortably accommodating a king-size bed along with a range of furniture options.

The second bedroom is wonderfully versatile—ideal as a guest room, dining space or home office—and also provides access to the rear porch, where there is practical space for white goods.

Beyond the porch lies the enclosed rear garden, designed with ease of maintenance in mind. A combination of stone and concrete paving alongside artificial grass creates a tidy yet inviting outdoor space, while high timber fencing and hedging ensure privacy. There is ample room for a shed, and an outbuilding with its own power supply opens exciting possibilities—whether as a home bar, garden office or creative studio.
