Property Description

Metal gates open onto a concrete driveway which runs alongside the property, providing access to a prefabricated single garage. The front garden is laid predominantly to lawn, with a low-level wall and established flower beds adding colour and interest to the approach. The driveway and side access also provide useful practical space for vehicles and access to the rear.

A PVC entrance door, flanked by a glazed side panel, opens into a useful entrance vestibule. Shelving provides a convenient spot for everyday items, whilst a small built-in storage cupboard offers further space for coats, shoes and household essentials.

A timber glazed door leads from the vestibule into the spacious lounge, which features decorative coved ceilings and an attractive ceiling rose, adding a traditional touch to the room. A large west-facing picture window allows plenty of natural light to fill the space, whilst the stone fireplace provides an attractive focal point and incorporates an electric fire. Raised stone-built sections either side offer useful display space or could accommodate items such as a television. From the lounge, a second internal hallway provides access to the remainder of the accommodation.

The kitchen is fitted with a practical range of wall and base-mounted units, together with a sink and draining board. Integrated appliances include an electric oven, gas hob and extractor hood, while a useful storage cupboard provides additional space. The central heating boiler is also located within the kitchen. A door with glazed side panel opens directly onto the rear garden, providing convenient access outside.

The first bedroom is a spacious double room enjoying a pleasant outlook over the open farmland to the rear. There is ample space for a double bed together with freestanding bedroom furniture, while the peaceful rural outlook provides a lovely backdrop.

The second bedroom is also a well-proportioned double room, with plenty of electrical sockets and sufficient space for a double bed, wardrobes and other freestanding bedroom furniture. Its versatile proportions make it suitable for a variety of uses depending upon the needs of the new owner.

The bathroom is fitted with a shower cubicle, wash hand basin and WC, with part tiled walls.

The second hallway provides access to the loft via a useful pull-down ladder, leading to a converted room in the roof. A window positioned within the rear gable takes full advantage of the property's attractive farmland views, creating a versatile additional space with plenty of potential for use as a hobby room, office, occasional sitting room or storage area, subject to any necessary consents and regulations.

From the kitchen, a small decked terrace provides access to the timber lean-to conservatory. Timber double glazing is fitted throughout, while the room provides useful additional accommodation that could be arranged as a further seating or relaxation area. Windows overlook both the garden and open farmland beyond, creating a pleasant connection with the property's outdoor surroundings.

The rear garden is laid for relatively easy maintenance, with a combination of paving and a smaller lawned area. Brick-built flower beds add structure and provide space for planting, while a small raised deck terrace creates another area for outdoor seating, complemented by further flower beds. A timber shed is positioned to the rear of the garage, providing useful garden storage. The rear boundary enjoys an open outlook across the surrounding farmland, giving the garden a particularly pleasant and spacious feel.
