Situated in a peaceful residential street, Colwyn Crescent is a charming three-bedroom semi-detached home offering both comfort and potential to extend. The property boasts a spacious layout with two reception rooms, a kitchen, and an extended area/conservatory, complemented by a rear garden, a garage and off-street parking to the front.

On the ground floor, it features a generous open-plan living and dining room, creating a bright and flexible living space. To the rear, there's a separate kitchen and a double bedroom, ideal for guests or extended family. A hallway leads to the staircase, with convenient under-stairs storage. The first floor offers three further bedrooms, making it suitable for a growing family. The main bedroom is located at the front of the property, with two additional bedrooms to the rear and side. A centrally located bathroom serves the upper floor.

This home combines ample living space with a practical layout, making it ideal for both families and investors.

Located just 0.2 miles from Hounslow East Underground Station, residents enjoy swift access to central London via the Piccadilly Line. Additionally, Isleworth Rail Station is under a mile away, providing further commuting options. For frequent travelers, Heathrow Airport is conveniently reachable within a 15-minute drive.
