£1,100 Per month

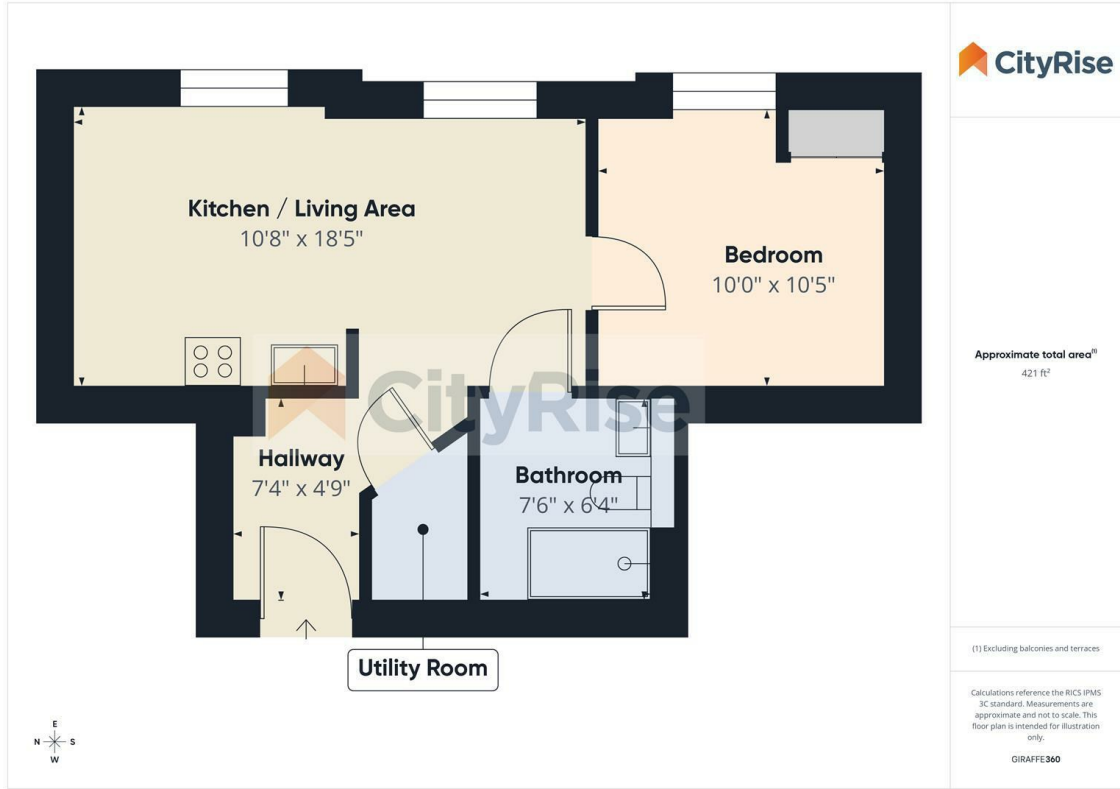

Zero Deposit Option Available

Cathedral View is a beautifully restored period building situated in the heart of Sheffield City Centre. Recently renovated to an exceptional standard, the development comprises 18 stylish, state-of-the-art apartments, including a selection of studio, one, and two-bedroom homes, each designed with its own unique character.

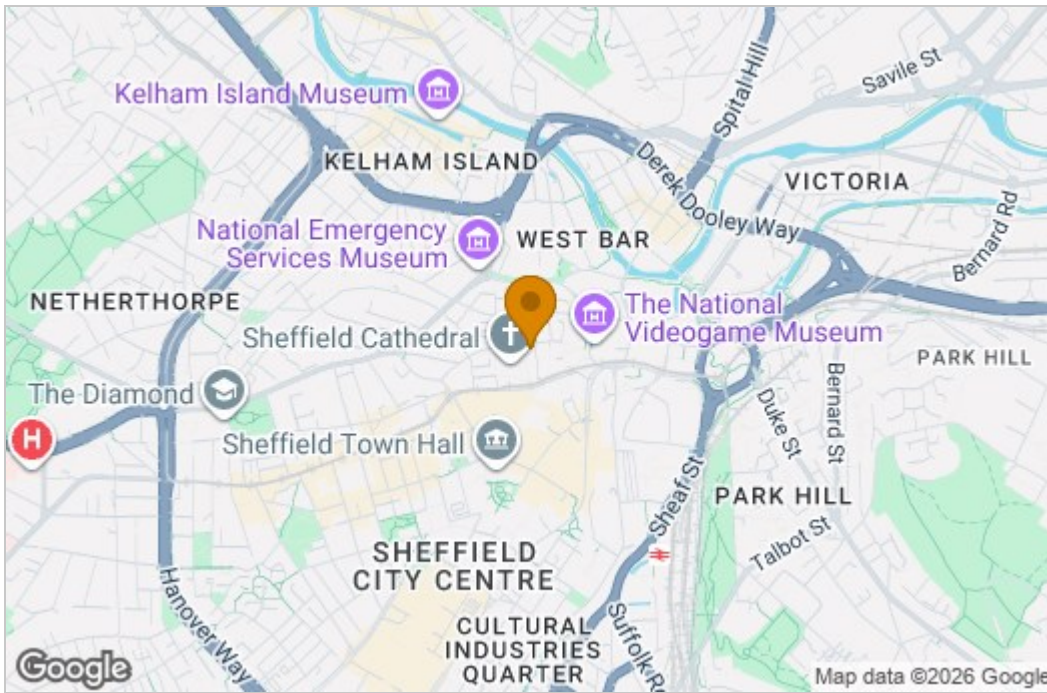

Perfectly positioned just a stone's throw from the Cathedral tram stop and the main high street, the location offers outstanding convenience for transport links, shopping, and vibrant city living. The striking Sheffield Cathedral directly opposite further enhances the building's charm and provides a truly distinctive setting.

This second floor one bedroom apartment is available for immediate occupation. Upon entering the property you are welcomed into a hallway area with a large storage cupboard housing the washing machine. Continuing through the property it opens into a gorgeous kitchen living room with large windows letting in lots of natural light. The high-specification kitchen is a standout feature, complete with integrated appliances including a dishwasher, fridge, oven, hob, and microwave.
