 GUIDE PRICE £575,000-£600,000 ***

A unique Grade II Listed flint cottage of considerable character and charm, built between 1792 and 1795 and situated in the popular and historic village of Ovingdean. Tucked away in a private cul-de-sac with stunning views over farmland, this idyllic location enjoys the best of both worlds – perfect for those desiring a village setting and only a 15-minute walk from the beach, yet just a 10-minute drive along the coast to central Brighton. Internally, the property is finished to a high standard and offers spacious accommodation. The ground floor comprises a living room, dining room, modern kitchen and WC, while on the first floor there are three bedrooms and a modern bathroom. A private garden as well as two further lawned areas allow you to enjoy the sunshine right through to the evening, and the property also benefits from an off-road parking space.
