Fantastic opportunity to bespoke design your own luxury lodge in the sought after Juniper Country Park in the heart of East Sussex is a collection of Lodges surrounded by fields and woodlands that offers access to one of England's most interesting counties. The new Bluebell area has larger luxury lodges, many with hot tubs, overlooking a field dotted with sheep!

The gates park offers security and is suitable for all ages, although it might appeal more to those looking for a quiet rural retreat. Located just a few miles from the A21 London to Hasting truck road, the park is very easily accessible from the City for couples or families wanting a short break.

The nearby village of Westfield has a shop and an ancient church and the area is particularly scenic, with many interesting old black and white houses.

Renowned for our high standards and ground breaking designs, we offer a diverse range of Luxury Holiday Lodges from one of our partnership manufacturers, to suit your every need. Our homes typically offer around 800sq ft of modern living space, full with all the integrated appliances one is accustomed to in a modern home. All designed and constructed by teams of experienced craftsmen. Working in hand with some of the leading Park Home manufacturers in Europe, we offer exceptional energy efficient homes with eco-friendly appliances.

You can choose from one of our available plots with either one of our Homes for sale already situated on site, or the opportunity to bespoke design your dream Holiday Home. Choosing everything from work surfaces to the bathroom tiles! All of our Homes for sale demonstrate the height of luxurious living whilst the park and it's surroundings offer that desirable countryside lifestyle.

All of our Holiday Parks are open for 12 months.
