Situated in the vibrant Upper Lewes Road area of Brighton, this charming flat presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a stylish and comfortable home. The property features one well-proportioned bedroom and a welcoming reception room, making it ideal for individuals or couples. Bathroom adds a touch of convenience, ensuring that daily routines are both easy and enjoyable.

One of the standout attributes of this flat is its delightful patio garden, which bathes the space in natural light and offers a serene outdoor area perfect for relaxation or entertaining guests. Such a garden is a rare find in a flat, enhancing the appeal of this property significantly.

Conveniently located near the popular Roundhill Conservation Area, the flat is just a short stroll from local shops and cafes. While it is close enough to the bustling city centre for easy access, it also offers a peaceful ambience, allowing residents to enjoy the best of both worlds. The area boasts a variety of popular gastro pubs, including the 'Roundhill', 'Signalman', 'Open House', and the Martha Gun.

For those commuting, London Road train station is approximately 500 metres away, providing excellent links to Gatwick Airport and London, while Brighton mainline train station is just 1 kilometre from the property. This flat truly embodies the essence of Brighton living, combining comfort, style, and practicality in a desirable location. Do not miss the opportunity to make this delightful property your own.
