Bradley and Co are delighted to offer to the market this impressive THREE / FOUR bedroom TWO bathroom detached home positioned in the prestigious and sought after Eastcote Park Estate.

Presented in good condition throughout, the property has a versatile layout that could cater for either three reception rooms, or four bedrooms. There is also the luxury of a en-suite to the master bedroom, and other bedrooms are of good size, plus there is a downstairs cloakroom which is convenient for visiting guests.

Outside front there is off street parking for up to THREE cars, with gated side access to the rear garden, WHICH has a patio area leading to a easy manageable but still good size rear garden.

Located in this quiet location just at the foot of the Eastcote Park Estate, the property is in close proximity of Eastcote array of shops and restaurants, which is service by the Metropolitan and Piccadilly line to central London.

The property is also conveniently located and within the catchment area for many reputable schools both primary and secondary therefore an ideal family home.
