The property offers many traditional features...

This Grade II listed semi-detached townhouse occupies a central location within Bedford's town centre and is within a few minute's walk from various facilities, including the mainline railway station for the commuter.

The property offers many traditional features with wooden flooring, fireplaces, sash windows, tall ceilings and picture rails.

On the ground floor there is a spacious entrance hall and to the front of the property there is large living room which has an open fireplace and arched sash windows. The separate family room is currently used as a bedroom and has a French door to the rear and fitted storage. At the end of the entrance hall there is access to the light and airy dining room which has doors to outside and beyond the dining room the kitchen is fitted with gloss units, has a travertine tiled floor and space for appliances.

Over the first and second floors there are four/five bedrooms, a bathroom and an additional WC. On the second floor there is useful loft storage space.

Additional benefits include gas central heating, a cloakroom and there is also a very useful cellar for storage purposes.

To the exterior there is a small open plan frontage with plants and shrubs with access available to the rear. The garden faces approximately west with patio and lawn areas and is well stocked with a variety of mature shrubs and plants.

Bedford's town centre facilities include the Embankment and the recently completed Riverside development which offers a variety of restaurants including national names and local independents and also a cinema.
