SUMMARY

Situated within an affluent coastal community, at the head of two beautiful bays, Westcliff House offers an enviable coastal lifestyle, boasting stunning ocean views and conveniently located close to a selection of bars, restaurants and a nearby golf course.

Completed in 2021, this attractive development offers modern living with a range of desirable facilities, including spacious communal areas, floor-to-ceiling windows in many apartments, private balconies and terraces, a high-resolution video entry system, secure bicycle storage, communal satellite, lift access and car parking with electric vehicle charging facilities. Residents also benefit from beautifully maintained communal gardens, shared with neighbouring Chalk House, featuring an outdoor kitchen, seated pergola area and children's playground.

Located on the second floor, towards the rear left-hand side of the building, this beautifully presented two-bedroom apartment has a high standard throughout. The accommodation is well proportioned and thoughtfully presented, comprising a welcoming living space, kitchen area, two bedrooms and an en-suite.

The kitchen and lounge area benefit from partial sea views, adding to the appeal of this attractive coastal property.

Ideally suited as a permanent residence, second home or investment opportunity, this apartment offers the perfect combination of contemporary accommodation, modern facilities and an enviable coastal location.
