SUMMARY

Originally built between 1880 and 1890 in the distinctive Queen Anne Revival style, these impressive buildings have been thoughtfully restored, combining period charm with contemporary living. Beautifully finished and ready to move into, Chalk House offers stylish coastal living.

Enjoying an enviable coastal position, this spacious one-bedroom apartment boasts a striking floor-to-ceiling one-way glass wall, flooding the living space with natural light while showcasing fabulous panoramic sea views across the bay.

The apartment features an open-plan lounge and dining area, complemented by a beautifully appointed Kreider Shaker-style kitchen with quartz worktops, matching splashback, fully integrated Bosch appliances and soft-close doors.

A spacious entrance hallway leads to a stylish bathroom featuring distinctive striped tiles inspired by Victorian bathing costumes at nearby St Mildred's Bay. The well-proportioned bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes, while attractive herringbone flooring runs throughout.

Residents benefit from a parking permit within the development, four communal electric vehicle charging points, secure bicycle storage, a beautifully designed communal garden with outdoor kitchen and a residents' gym offering 24-hour access. Additional free parking is available along Sea Road.

Ideally located just a short stroll from Station Road, residents can enjoy independent shops, cafés, eateries and everyday amenities, with beautiful beaches and the picturesque coastline close by.
Combining Victorian elegance, contemporary interiors, spectacular sea views and excellent facilities, this apartment presents a wonderful opportunity to enjoy stylish seaside living in Westgate-on-Sea.
