A charming character home arranged over three stories and perfectly positioned for country walks around Millennium Green and Ridgewood Park—ideal spaces for children to play.

A gate leads through to a walled front garden, and the front door opens into an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor. A door leads into a bright and welcoming open-plan lounge and dining area, perfect for both relaxing and entertaining. This space flows nicely through to a well-equipped kitchen.

On the first floor, there is a generous, bright, and airy bedroom along with a large, fully fitted bathroom. The second floor hosts the main bedroom, which is flooded with natural light.

To the rear, the garden offers a good degree of privacy, along with the added benefit of a garage located behind the garden.
