

SUMMARY

This beautifully presented four-bedroom semi-detached house, located in the desirable St Leonards area, has now become available. The property offers an excellent mix of period charm and contemporary finishes, arranged over multiple levels and within easy reach of the seafront, local amenities, and both West St Leonards and Warrior Square train stations.

The entrance level comprises a bright and spacious living room with original wooden flooring and a feature fireplace, with adjoining doors leading into a second reception room, also accessible via the main hallway.

Downstairs on its own level is a generously sized additional room, further down there is the kitchen/breakfast room is a standout feature of the home, fitted with freestanding units, a chimney breast with cooker insert, and bi-folding double-glazed doors that open out to a private courtyard-style garden—perfect for entertaining or relaxing.

Moving up, the first level of the house hosts the large family bathroom, complete with freestanding oval bath, his and hers basins, overhead shower, bidet, and WC.

On the next level are two double bedrooms, including the main bedroom which benefits from exposed brickwork, wooden floors, and its own en-suite shower room.

The fourth bedroom sits on the top level, offering fantastic space, natural light, and elevated views.

Additional benefits include gas central heating, part double glazing, and a prime coastal location.
