SUMMARY

A beautifully presented Georgian home, full of period charm and character, offering spacious accommodation, stunning views towards the sea and a sought-after location close to Hastings Old Town.

This charming Georgian house, dating back to 1820, is situated in an elevated position on St Marys Terrace, enjoying wonderful views across Hastings towards the sea. Arranged over three floors, the property offers one reception rooms, four bedrooms, a family bathroom, an allocated parking space and a delightful rear terraced garden.

The house has been well maintained and retains a wealth of period features, including original fireplaces, sash windows, exposed timber flooring and fitted cabinetry. The accommodation is spacious and full of character, with a well-appointed kitchen providing direct access to the rear courtyard and garden.

Outside, the property benefits from a charming rear courtyard and a tiered garden with established planting and seating areas.

Ideally positioned within walking distance of Hastings Old Town, the West Hill and Hastings town centre, the property is close to a fantastic selection of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and the seafront. Hastings mainline railway station is also within easy reach, providing direct connections to London.

Please note:
An annual household income of £60,000 is required to meet the affordability criteria for this property.
