

OAKFIELD

St. James Street, Lewes
Asking Price £750,000

SUMMARY

A Classic Victorian Gem in the Heart of Southover - Situated on a quiet and highly desirable residential street in the historic Southover district of Lewes, St James Street is a quintessential Victorian townhouse that beautifully marries period charm with modern family living. Set across four floors, this home has been thoughtfully maintained to create a bright, airy, and welcoming atmosphere that feels both elegant and lived-in.

The ground floor is designed for effortless flow. At the front, the formal sitting room offers a peaceful retreat, featuring high ceilings and a classic fireplace that serves as a warm focal point for winter evenings. To the rear, the house opens into a generous kitchen, dining and family room—the true heart of the home. A dry cellar is accessed via the kitchen - This versatile space flows from the modern kitchen, making it ideal for everything from busy school mornings to weekend dinner parties. The rear opens up with bi-fold doors taking in the view of the larger than average garden. The garden itself is a delightful west facing sanctuary, offering a mix of paved terrace and lawn, perfect for alfresco dining. A garden room, raised beds and a summer house. Also with the benefit of side access.

The upper floors continue to impress with their sense of space and light. On the first floor, you'll find two well-proportioned bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom. The journey continues to the second floor, where a charming top floor bedroom offers elevated views over the historic rooftops of Lewes toward the surrounding hills. Throughout the home, original features like sash windows and period detailing act as a reminder of the property's heritage.

The location is second to none for those seeking the best of Lewes life. You are tucked away from the noise, yet only moments from the town's vibrant pulse. Lewes Mainline Station is a mere 0.3 miles (approx. 5-minute walk) away, offering direct and frequent services to London Victoria (65 mins)
