Internally, you step into a welcoming hallway that connects seamlessly to each room. Towards the rear on the left, you'll find a well-equipped kitchen dining space. This space is filled with natural light from its west-facing window and has a door that opens directly onto the rear garden.

At the end of the hallway, the shower room is conveniently situated on the right, with a practical layout accessible from all areas of the home.

The property offers two spacious bedrooms and a comfortable living area, providing a cosy and functional layout.

Externally, the property features a west-facing rear garden. Additional benefits include off-street parking and a garage accessed via a shared drive, offering ample storage and parking convenience.

Tenure

The agent understands the property to be freehold. However, this should be confirmed with a licenced legal representative.
