Delightful four-bedroom country home positioned on Main Street in the quiet area of Radcliffe, offering generous and versatile accommodation within an attractive village-style setting.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and includes a spacious lounge, a large dining room, a generous kitchen, and a family room that can also be used as a fifth bedroom if required. A convenient ground-floor WC and boot room further enhance the practicality of the layout. The first floor hosts four well-proportioned bedrooms, with a section of the landing currently arranged as a study or home office, and a well-appointed family bathroom with a five-piece suite serving the accommodation. Externally, the property benefits from a garage, off-street parking to the rear, a hut, summerhouse, greenhouses, a polytunnel and a lovely expansive garden enjoying uninterrupted countryside views.

Situated on Main Street, the property enjoys a pleasant position close to Amble's excellent range of shops, cafés, restaurants and highly regarded schools, while also benefiting from easy access to the surrounding countryside and scenic walking routes. Strong road and rail links provide convenient connections to Newcastle and the wider region, making this an ideal home for families seeking space, flexibility and a semi-rural lifestyle.
