The internal accommodation comprises: an entrance hall with stairs leading to the first floor, and under-stair storage. To the left, a welcoming lounge enjoys dual aspects, a feature fireplace and a walk-in bow window. Adjacent to this is a dining room, also with a feature fireplace and aspects over the front of the property. Next to this room is a study/office space, also useful as an additional bedroom, which enjoys Velux windows, built-in cupboards and aspects over the side of the property. The hallway then leads to a spacious breakfasting kitchen, which has a range of fitted wall and base units centred around an island, along with integrated appliances.
