DESCRIPTION

Holmside comprises a charming detached house, constructed of brick beneath a slate roof and approached over a stone sett and gravel drive. Built in the Georgian style it is believed to date back from around 1840. It has a particularly attractive façade with bay windows and a mature wisteria trained across the front elevation.

Holmside is situated within the village conservation area and has been with one family for 44 years. Internally the property offers comfortable, recently improved, accommodation on two floors only. Imbued with character and charm, the house boasts well proportioned rooms, some original features and sash windows that flood the interiors with natural light.

Outside, the formal gardens have been lovingly nurtured and enjoy a fine Westerly aspect towards Audlem church.

LOCATION & AMENITIES

Holmside is located 400 yards from Audlem village centre. Audlem was mentioned in the Domesday book as Aldelyme, and Edward 1 granted a market charter in 1295. Audlem is on the Shropshire Union canal, which has a run of 15 locks, designed by Thomas Telford to raise the canal 93 feet from the Cheshire plain to the Shropshire plain. The River Weaver passes West of the village. The sought after, award winning, village of Audlem caters for daily needs with local co-operative store, post office, newsagents, dry cleaners, butchers, flower shop, restaurant, two cafes, three public houses and a medical centre. Nantwich (7 miles) offers a more comprehensive range of services with High Street retailers, banks, restaurants, leisure facilities and supermarkets. Crewe station (11 miles) provides a fast intercity rail network (London Euston 90 minutes, Manchester 40 minutes). The M6 motorway (Junction 16) is 11 miles. Manchester Airport 40 miles.

On the Educational front, there is a primary school in Audlem (Ofsted Good) and the house lies in the catchment area for Brine Leas High School/BL6 Sixth Form (Ofsted Good).

There are numerous sports facilities in the area including tennis, bowling, cricket, football, running and cycling clubs in Audlem.

DIRECTIONS

From Nantwich, proceed along Wellington Road (this becomes Audlem Road) for about 6.5 miles into Audlem, with the church on your left, turn left, proceed for 400 yards and the property is located on the left hand side, on the corner of Salford.
