GENERAL REMARKS

Comment by Mark Johnson FRICS @ Baker Wynne and Wilson.

Are you looking for a substantially improved, extended and character-filled property in a historic market town? Look no further than this 1940 semi-detached home with intuitive contemporary interventions blended throughout its characterful heritage..

This immaculately reconsidered house has been the subject of a recent comprehensive scheme of modernisation and immediately upon entering the front to rear view of the principal living space, redefines the concept of the family traditional home into a contemporary modern lifestyle. Light floods through the sliding bi- fold doors, which in turn opens up a view of the lawned rear garden beyond, making it feel integral to the main Kitchen and the adjoining versatile living spaces. The inspiring rear extension has created an expansive flowing interior layout, which serves as the centre piece for the family, where work can coexist with cooking, entertaining and quiet relaxation.

Redesigned to work in harmony within this exemplary and sensitive modern renovation the gardens form an integral part of the overall experience of the house ensuring outside spaces are enjoyed as much as the luxurious interior.

For buyers prioritizing location this opportunity is a compelling choice, in a prime position that offers a unique blend of supreme convenience, style, and community with historic architecture, shops , bars, restaurants, and interesting street scenes all close by.

Destined to attract professionals, downsizers, families, and investors due to prime location and lifestyle appeal – living close to workplaces, reducing travel time and costs, we can confidently recommend an early viewing as to fully appreciate this rare opportunity with its distinctive ' wow factor '
