DESCRIPTION

Ridgeway was probably built in the 1950's, of brick under a tiled roof and stands well back from the road, approached over a tarmacadam drive. With no chain, set in a well nurtured plot of .35 of an acre, a one off detached bungalow ideally positioned in the heart of the village. Many interested parties may enjoy the process of modernising the property room by room and putting their own ideas into the present layout. Others with a more radical approach may wish, subject to planning permission to extend and incorporate the large roof space. This property comes to the market for the first time in 40 years and is a home with fantastic long-term potential.

LOCATION & AMENITIES

Ridgeway is perfectly located on a tranquil lane, in the heart of the village, amidst what is generally regarded as some of the finest countryside in South Cheshire, near to the Shropshire Union Canal. The village benefits from a wealth of local amenities including a shop/post office, catering for the educational, recreational and shopping needs of the villagers. This includes a doctors surgery and dispensary, a local railway station, a regular local bus service, excellent pub/restaurant and a primary school. Alternatively, the towns of Nantwich, Crewe and Whitchurch can provide further amenities not available in the village. Wrenbury is conveniently situated in relation to other nearby cities, towns and business centres with Chester, Liverpool and Manchester within commuting distance. The main line railway station is also nearby and the major Crewe terminal with express line to London Euston (90 minutes) only 9 miles away.
