DESCRIPTION

Millfields Cottage is an interesting period cottage constructed of brick under a slate roof and approached over its own sweeping tarmacadam drive to a car parking and turning area. It sits well back from the road, off a shared drive, in a lovely enclave that comprises The Mill and Mill Forge.

The internal layout offers plenty to work with and this comfortably sized cottage has sufficient adaptability to suit different lifestyle requirements. It requires some modernisation but in many ways that adds to the appeal.

The gardens are a delight and provide a wonderful setting for this competitively priced cottage.
