DESCRIPTION

This traditional 1940's semi detached house is constructed of brick with part tiled and black and white elevations beneath a tiled roof. The house is of considerable character and appeal with original features including fireplaces, doors, picture rails and parquet wood block floors. Whilst now needing some modernisation the house can be lived in as it is. However, it offers tremendous scope and presents an exciting opportunity for extension and modernisation, tailored to personal taste.

5 Shrewbridge Road has been a much loved family home and comes to the market for the first time since it was built.
