DESCRIPTION

Penhallow is constructed of brick under a tiled roof with a benefit of two vehicular access drives from Whitchurch Road. This is a property with tremendous scope, making it an ideal project for either a private individual or seasoned developer. The cottage extends to about 1,250 square feet (gross internal) and the overall site size is .30 of an acre.

The scope to improve comes in two formats. The first is by refurbishing and enlarging the cottage, the second element of investment interest is the opportunity to redevelop the site, subject to planning permission.
