Decked in cosy champagne coloured carpet, two original sash windows provide the open-plan living space with bountiful natural light. Classy, contemporary furniture has been very carefully selected for this calming space, including a cloud grey two-seater sofa and a Scandi-style laid back armchair with a birch frame and ashen grey upholstered cushions. Providing a clever separation between the reception room and kitchen area is a bespoke fitted breakfast bar, offering storage within a trio of deep sliding drawers. Sleekly integrated appliances sit alongside brilliant white cupboards and adjustable overhead spotlighting in the kitchen, providing the perfect stage to display your homegrown herb garden, favourite exotic spices and/or Jamie Oliver cookbook obsession. Turning the split-level corner, the hallway opens up to a beautifully designed bathroom fitted with a wood-framed mirrored cabinet, crisp white tiled walls and a delightfully zen atmosphere for a well-deserved soak in the deep full-sized bathtub with an overhead rainforest shower. Original sash windows can be spotted in both double bedrooms, alongside a large white wardrobe, double bed and a chunky wooden shelf in each.
