Traversing to the open plan kitchen and reception room first, you'll find off-white walls and light wooden flooring that leads to a pleasingly neutral sense of space. A double glazed window allows plentiful light to fall into the reception area, joined by a quaint wooden shelving unit and two matching pieces of inbuilt cabinetry. You'll also spot a steel picture rail mounted on one wall, complete with adjustable clips for hanging photographs and/or postcards. In the kitchen area, you'll encounter a double bowl washbasin, a light teal subway splash back and a collection of hooks and wall-mounted steel bars for hanging utensils, cookware and mugs. You'll also spy entry to the private rear garden, which features a beautifully decked and paved patio area, a grassy lawn bordered by mature shrubbery, a weatherproof storage unit and a handful of blooming roses. Back inside and to the master bedroom, passing by entrance to the basement, you'll find a glorious bay window, a grey-white marble fireplace, and original Victorian cornicing lining the ceiling – the perfect space for couples to utilise as a separate reception room. The bathroom is adjacent, packed with a white heated towel rail, a mirrored wall cabinet, and a panelled full-sized bathtub with overhead shower. Overlooking the peaceful private garden is the second double bedroom, fitted with a floor-to-ceiling inbuilt
