OUTSIDE

The property is surrounded by beautifully maintained wrap-around gardens that offer both aesthetic appeal and a reassuring degree of privacy. To the front, an expansive lawn creates a welcoming first impression, centred around a striking feature tree that provides both shade and character. A fenced side section, complete with double gates, leads to a hard-standing area ideal for off-road parking, neatly blending functionality with the overall landscaping.

To the rear, the garden extends into a space larger than average, bordered by mature hedging that enhances privacy while maintaining a natural charm. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn, offering plenty of space for relaxation or play, and includes a well-positioned patio area – perfect for outdoor dining or entertaining. A timber shed is discreetly located, providing practical storage without detracting from the garden's overall appeal. This thoughtfully arranged outdoor space combines size, seclusion, and versatility, making it a standout feature of the property.
