The lovely bathroom boasts a free-standing claw foot bath, perfect for unwinding after a long day. Outside, the peaceful and well-maintained rear garden offers a serene retreat, complemented by a garage and parking space for three cars.

This home is a perfect blend of classic charm and modern convenience, ideal for those seeking a tranquil village lifestyle. Planning permission for a first floor extension has previously been approved.

The Old Manse was built in 1869 and originally called 'East View'. In 1916 the occupant of East View died and bequeathed the property to the Tetney Primitive Chapel for the minister to live in. It is believed the house name was changed to The Old Manse when the chapel trustees sold the house. A blue house sign at the front 'The Old Manse' depicts a violin in the middle. The purchase from the trustees was a music teacher and this was his reference. All original deeds and documents with photos accompany this house.
