Abberley is a traditional Edwardian home set on a large (double) plot, semi-detached family home, offering over 2,200 sq ft of versatile accommodation arranged across three floors, together with a detached garage and an abundance of character features throughout.

This impressive period home effortlessly combines timeless architectural charm with modern family living. The attractive brick façade, original bay windows and high ceilings are complemented internally by elegant proportions, stylish décor and an excellent degree of natural light.

The welcoming entrance hall leads to two generous reception rooms, both offering flexible living and entertaining space. The principal sitting room benefits from a striking bay window, while the second reception room provides an ideal family room or formal lounge. To the rear of the property is a spacious dining room opening through to a well-appointed kitchen, creating an excellent space for everyday family life and entertaining. A separate utility room and ground floor cloakroom add further practicality.

The first floor offers two generous double bedrooms, including a superb principal bedroom with en-suite shower room. A contemporary family bathroom serves the remaining accommodation on this level, whilst an additional room is currently utilised as a home office but could equally provide a fourth bedroom, nursery or hobby room.

Occupying the entire second floor is a spacious third bedroom with its own cloakroom, creating an ideal guest suite, teenager's retreat or private workspace.

It has an elegant formal frontage with hand forged iron railings and is set with standard bay trees. A cobbled path to the side gives access to the garden. It has an extensive landscaped garden enjoying a southerly aspect with lawn and patio areas, mature trees and shrubs, pond and a useful screened utility area. The added bonus is the off street parking and charging point, accessed from a private road.
