All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

In the 1950's this double fronted property was the local Post Office, on the High Street of Sandridge. Now known as 'The Old Post Office', it is a beautiful and very comfortable home that is split into three levels of functional and versatile living accommodation. This fabulous property has been refurbished throughout with high quality fixtures and finishes but yet retains some charm of days gone by. Brick built fireplaces, wooden beams, wood panels and solid wood flooring and oak ledge doors to name but a few character features that are blended with contemporary style fittings. Taking precedence on the ground floor is a huge open plan kitchen/breakfast/family room and a full-width lounge to the front of the property. A large entrance hall, utility room and cloakroom completes the ground floor. To the first floor is the master bedroom, complete with walk-in wardrobe and en-suite. The three remaining bedrooms are served by the family bathroom. The basement is currently being used as a fifth bedroom. Patio doors from the family room leads to the mature rear garden with a good sized paved patio area. The ever-popular Sandridge is a quaint village with three pubs, a local shop, Heartwood Forest and is within the catchment of outstanding primary and secondary schools.

Cassidy & Tate have taken all reasonable steps to ensure the accuracy of the details supplied in our marketing material however, details are provided as a guide only and we advise prospective purchasers to confirm details upon inspection of the property.
