All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Situated in the popular residential development of Jersey Farm is this pleasant and sought after two bedroom, ground floor retirement maisonette which is positioned within a well regarded and safe complex, proving popular with the over 55's who wish to maintain their independence but with the reassurance of a warden controlled environment. The property has been well maintained with living accommodation comprising of an entrance hall, two good sized bedrooms, a shower room, fitted kitchen and a 15ft lounge/diner. The property features its own private garden space which leads to the communal gardens to be enjoyed by all residents. Further benefits include double glazing, parking for residents and visitors, and is being sold with the added benefit of no upper chain. Harvest Court is ideally located close to good local amenities including a 'Tesco' metro and a doctor and dentist surgeries. St. Albans city centre with its excellent shopping and leisure facilities plus the mainline railway station remain only a short distance away.
