All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Set within the exclusive surroundings of Tollgate Farm in the picturesque village of Colney Heath, this exceptional detached residence offers the perfect balance of luxury modern living and idyllic countryside charm, all within a short drive of St. Albans city centre, Brookmans Park and excellent transport connections into London. Constructed in 2003 as the principal residence for the longstanding owners of Tollgate Farm, this beautifully appointed family home enjoys a privileged position overlooking open farmland and rolling countryside, creating a peaceful semi-rural setting rarely found so conveniently close to the city. Approached via electric gated access, the property immediately offers a sense of privacy and exclusivity. Internally, the home extends to approximately 1,845 sq ft and has been thoughtfully designed to suit modern family living. Large windows throughout perfectly frame the stunning countryside outlook, allowing natural light to flood the accommodation while enhancing the tranquil setting. Upstairs, there are four well-proportioned double bedrooms, including an impressive principal suite enjoying far-reaching views across the surrounding farmland. The layout has been carefully arranged to provide comfortable and practical family living whilst maintaining a luxurious and welcoming atmosphere throughout. Importantly, the wider Tollgate Farm setting is currently undergoing an exciting transformation, with the former farm buildings and surrounding land now being sympathetically redeveloped into an exclusive mews-style collection of luxury homes. Once completed, this high-quality redevelopment is expected to significantly enhance the overall environment and desirability of the area, creating a boutique countryside-style community centred around the original farmstead. Colney Heath continues to be one of Hertfordshire's most desirable semi-rural locations, offering a wonderful village atmosphere.
