All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Sitting in a dress circle position within 2 acres of mature grounds is Sewell Manor. A Grade II stately private property of unique versatility. Respectful renovations and meticulous upkeep means this decade-old manor house has stood the test of time. Built as far back as the 13th century, this historic manor house gives us a glimpse into a bygone era. From a grand reception hall, 6 ornate reception rooms, 5 bathrooms and restored period features, this manor house has it all. Its architecture ranges in style. Starting from Gothic architecture that values height and exhibits an intricate and delicate aesthetic to an extension and alterations in the 17th century, to the most recent modern changes applied in the 19th/20th century. Sewell Manor enjoys an idyllic rural setting, but yet has the convenience and easy access to good transport links. During the 17th century, Sewell Manor was under the ownership of Henry Brandreth and his family - a London Merchant who decided to become a country gentleman. If ever you dreamt of being the head of the household in a grand manor, Sewell Manor could give you that rare opportunity.
