

All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Rarely available in this sought after cul de sac in Marshalswick, this is a large four bedroom link-detached property requiring complete modernisation. It has become available with no upper chain and offers huge potential to further extend subject to any necessary planning consents. The further accommodation comprises: a large living room, dining room, kitchen to the rear, link detached garage, driveway with plenty of off road parking, and a very pretty woodland style garden. The property is situated within the catchment for highly regarded primary schools and Sandringham School plus the City Centre and mainline train station are just a short distance away.
