All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Positioned on a lovely sized plot is this fine detached five bedroom property situated within a peaceful cul de sac location in the ever popular residential development of Jersey Farm with magnificent views over the countryside. Having undergone a significant extension and remodelling, this superb family home combines a cleverly thought out layout with contemporary features. The ground floor accommodation affords particularly well considered rooms that offer living spaces with families in mind. The living room is a generous sized room which opens to the dining room, perfect for when entertaining. A third reception leads from the entrance hall which would be a perfect study or gymnasium. The kitchen/breakfast room, fitted with contemporary wall and base units is great for informal dining. There is also a utility room and cloakroom. On the second floor the principle bedroom takes precedence with double Juliet doors looking over Jersey farm, en-suite shower room and its own private walk in dressing room. Whilst the remaining four bedrooms are served by the family bathroom located on the first floor. A lovely low maintenance rear garden is privately enclosed with two patio area's and to the front is a driveway providing off road parking for at least 3 vehicles. Pirton Close is conveniently positioned for excellent schools and good local amenities including a 'Tesco' metro, a doctor and dentist surgeries and eateries. St Albans city centre and the mainline railway station remain only a short distance away.
