All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

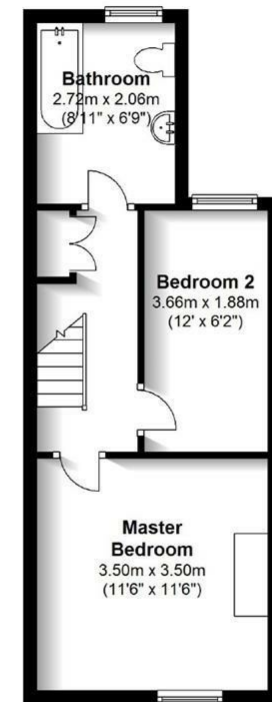

With views overlooking Bernards Heath playing fields and set amongst a variety of period houses this character, semi detached property proves to be popular with professionals and commuters alike. Well presented throughout this property offers a contemporary ambience whilst still oozing character and charm of its era. Enjoying a wealth of features including a through lounge/dining room with feature fireplaces, makes for a cosy atmosphere and a light filled kitchen complete with an extensive range of fitted kitchen units. On the first floor are two bedrooms and a family bathroom. To the outside, the property offers a generous sized private enclosed and low maintenance rear garden with summer house. Sandridge Road is situated within walking distance of the many cosmopolitan bars, shopping and leisure facilities of St Albans city centre, whilst the mainline railway station remains a short distance away.
