All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Placed in the heart of St Albans, this exceptional modern home forms part of the prestigious Gabriel Square development, offering a superb blend of contemporary design and everyday convenience. Extending to over 2,000 sq ft and arranged across four thoughtfully designed levels, the property provides generous and versatile living space ideal for both family life and entertaining. The home features four spacious double bedrooms and four stylishly appointed bathrooms, complemented by two additional reception areas that enhance comfort and flexibility throughout. A standout feature is the west-facing rooftop terrace, an inviting outdoor space perfect for relaxing while enjoying far-reaching views across St Albans and the iconic Abbey. Gabriel Square is an attractive and well-located development, just moments from the vibrant city centre and within easy reach of St Albans train station, making it ideal for commuters. The property further benefits from secure, underground gated parking for two vehicles — a rare and valuable asset in this central location. This impressive home is perfectly suited to families or professionals seeking a stylish, low-maintenance lifestyle in one of St Albans' most desirable settings. Combining modern architecture, generous proportions and a prime location, this is a truly rare opportunity.
