All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Situated in a tree-lined road in the sought after Chiswell Green area is this deceptively spacious four bedroom semi-detached chalet bungalow. The interior of this outstanding home is a pleasing meld of modern themes and sophisticated elegance which is clearly evident throughout the property. The versatile floorplan has been cleverly designed with families in mind and comprises of an entrance hall, a family room, 21ft living room open to the 28ft kitchen/diner, a utility room and a downstairs bathroom. Two of the four bedrooms are situated on the ground floor with two additional bedrooms and an en-suite are located on the first floor. The fabulous open plan living room and kitchen/dining room is at the heart of the home. A comfortable environment for family meals or entertaining and the base from which to flow from indoors to out. A sleek modern kitchen and centre island boasts a wealth of cupboard and work top space complemented by good quality appliances whilst a built-in inset wood fire stove is an exceptional centrepiece in the living room. A superb roof lantern in the kitchen provides all year round natural daylight whilst bi-folding doors in both the kitchen and living room open to bring the outdoors in. The family room to the front of the property is the perfect space for private living. A trendy family bathroom serves three of the bedrooms and a fashionable en-suite serves the master bedrooms. The rear garden is as lovely as the inside with a large patio area and steps down to the well tended lawn and flower bed borders. To the front is a driveway providing off road parking for several cars. Stanley Avenue is located close to excellent schools, a doctor's surgery and good local amenities.
