All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

This lovely chain free property is situated in a privileged location unknown to many, with a feel of being in the countryside, but yet will offer a good lifestyle within easy reach. They will appeal to the busy professional and commuter who are looking for city centre living- good restaurants, plenty of places to socialise and easy access to the two stations, linking St. Albans to London in approximately 30 minutes. The apartment has been tastefully designed with space and style in mind. Quality fixtures and fittings such as underfloor heating, branded appliances, lifts to all floors, communal private garden and allocated parking spaces all add a touch of luxury. Every element of Provence House has been carefully considered to be as functional as it is uniquely stylish. The Limes is positioned in a tucked away location, just off Sandridge Road and adjacent to the lovely open spaces of Bernards Heath, a unique green space, surrounded by history. St. Albans is a historic market town and is now a dormitory city within the London commuter belt. An ideal neighbourhood for professionals and commuters working in central areas of London and its suburbs, who want to escape the busyness and are looking for greenery, and a country pub within a short stroll.
