All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

A stunning, contemporary three bedroom end of terrace townhouse, nestled within an exclusive development which is ideally located between St Albans High Street and the mainline train station. The city centre bustles with a host of individual eateries with fine dining, great independent local pubs together with boutique shops and Verulamium Park with its stunning lake. The property has been beautifully designed and incorporates a high quality finish throughout. Comprising internally: Entrance hall with smart security system, downstairs w/c, stylish open plan living room/kitchen with integrated appliances and doors that open onto the low maintenance garden. The first floor offers two well proportioned bedrooms and a modern family bathroom, whilst the second floor provides an impressive principal bedroom with built in wardrobes, additional storage areas, large windows and an immaculate en-suite shower room. With its own front garden the property is further benefitted by attractive communal gardens and having an allocated parking space.
