The development has been constructed by reputable builders Jaw Construction who have built an enviable reputation for creating quality homes and extensions. Set within an idyllic rural position in Sewell each property has a cleverly designed floorplan that comes complete with good quality inclusions and beautiful vistas. Lovely homes crafted and built with a modern touch that exudes comfortable living. The Kitchen is the heart of the home, and this couldn't be truer with its open plan kitchen, dining, and family area perfect for families or those with frequent guests in mind. Further features include a study, utility/cloakroom, en-suite to bedroom one and a family sized bathroom. The kitchen area is fitted with shaker style units and 'Neff' integrated appliances. 'Porcelanosa' sanitaryware and tiles are being used in the bathroom, en-suite and cloakroom, all complemented by 'Hansgrohe' fittings. Internal doors will be oak, whilst the external door is a bi-folding doors that brings the outside in. Further benefits include CAT 5 E nest system, alarm and video entry and underfloor heating downstairs. Outside is a private enclosed rear garden as well as parking to the front. Sewell is a small rural settlement, but yet has the convenience and easy access to good transport links. This type of property would attract a local, but could draw the attention of a buyer/families looking to relocate to rural settings to enjoy the country air.
