All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Situated in the popular Highfield development is this bright and spacious two double bedroom semi-detached modern home. The property is beautifully presented throughout, enjoying a living room, fitted kitchen/breakfast room and conservatory on the ground floor. On the first floor are two double bedrooms, en-suite shower room to master bedroom and a bathroom. Further features include a larger than average rear garden which has been lovingly maintained, with a patio area perfect for al fresco dining. To the front of the property is off-street parking for two cars. The Highfield area of St. Albans is regarded as a suburban neighbourhood that is hugely popular with families and where a great sense of neighbourly environment can be found. It is also close to good local schools, local amenities found in Russet Drive, including a Spar shop, a doctors' surgery, a barbers and also has its own park. Highfield Park is a lovely green space, popular with dog walkers and cyclists. The area has many features, including playing fields, a couple of ponds, a tree trail, two orchards and a maze.
