All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

Cassidy and Tate are delighted to offer chain free, this attractive and substantial Edwardian, five bedroom detached property situated in a prime location. The property has been a much loved family home for 13 years, during this time the owners have made improvements while retaining many original features. Captivating warmth and mesmerising charm enchant this lovely light filled home where living spaces boast high ceilings and bay windows that make the rooms so bright. Feature fireplaces lend a comfortable feel, whilst the handsome period detailing throughout, including decorative cornice and picture rails, as well as oak panelling and parquet flooring, are a delight. Entry into the home is via a good sized entrance hall leading to the front living room, rear family room and kitchen/dining room. From the kitchen/dining room is a door leading to an inner lobby, shower room, cloakroom and utility room. On the first floor are five double bedrooms, a family bathroom which can also be accessed by the master bedroom, and an additional shower room. Living spaces have a casual yet elegant feel with a focus on informal family or guest living. Externally the property enjoys a mature and enclosed rear garden with patio area and a variety of mature shrubs, trees and plants. Further benefits include a detached garage with stairs leading to a hobbies room, light and power connected and an electric car charge port. The property is in a premier location, well positioned for the mainline railway station, the city centre and excellent schools.
