This beautiful period detached house just moments from Knaphill village offers a perfect blend of charm and convenience. This three bed home is on a large plot providing good living space throughout including a lounge thro dining room, a separate family room, and a conservatory with a garden view and access. There is gas central heating with radiators throughout, and the double glazed windows were replaced by Anglia Windows in 2021.

The land is divided into two areas, an attractive low maintenance fully fenced south facing garden which leads to a larger area (approx. 125ft x 40ft.) This plot is also accessed from the car port and could provide an opportunity for a number of different uses including the potential for development subject to consent. It could also provide alternative parking at the rear.

The fully fitted kitchen provides
