BRAITHWAIT

4 x 1 x 2 x

A four-bedroom white stucco period house in Maida Vale set within a Victorian terrace on Goldney Road. The house benefits from a south facing garden, as well as a south facing terrace on the second floor. The accommodation is arranged on the ground floor as a 25'8" reception with double doors, with high ceilings, leading to the patio garden and a separate kitchen overlooking the garden. The first floor comprises two good sized bedrooms and a family bathroom. Stairs lead up to a half landing and onto the terrace, and further up to the master bedroom with vaulted ceiling, and further bedroom. All bedrooms benefit from an abundance of built in storage. Conveniently situated close to the Bakerloo Line, Hammersmith & City Line, and the Elizabeth Line and the cosmopolitan shops and cafés of Maida Vale and Little Venice with the picturesque canals of Little Venice close by. Freehold.

The house also benefits from approved planning for an extension with the link in the additional links section to the Westminster Planning site.
